Share a Star of the Week Assembly with us next week!

We would like to welcome parents of children in Barn Owls to share our celebration Star of the Week Assembly on Friday 6th July .

The hall doors (by the notice board on the main playground) will be open shortly before 9am for parents to come in and take a seat until the children are ready. You will be asked to sign in when you are in the hall and wear a visitor sticker.

Please make sure you sign out when you leave school.

Reminder!

Mad Hair day 2nd July.
Donation of £1 to go to Break charity. Normal uniform but dress your hair up as mad as you can!

Learning Ambassador Review of the Week

This week a lot of things have happened . The most exciting activity was going to a netball tournament. When we got there we played our first match, luckily we beat the other team 1—0 to us.

We have also been practising for our end of year play.

Year 6 have been working on our “£5 Make It Grow”. The challenge is to make our own mini company and sell our products at the summer fete.
