As this will be our last newsletter of this term. We would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a merry Christmas and a happy New Year!

The Scholastic Book Fair which was held at school recently sold £922.60 of books. This created rewards of £92.26 to spend on new books for the library. Thank you to all who came and supported it.
Mrs Hollingworth & Mrs Brigstock

Change of menu last day of term Fish fingers/Vegetable bean burger, chips, peas and baked beans with chocolate cornflake cake.

We would like to say goodbye and good luck to Miss Silva our MSA who leaves us this term and we are pleased to announce that Mrs Theobald & Mrs Teale will be joining our Midday supervisors' team in January. We also welcome Mr. Ray who will be starting teaching in Year 6H, Mr Howell will now be taking up his role as Deputy Head fulltime.

Learning Ambassador Review of the Week

This week in 4S we learnt about World War One. We watched an advert based on events from 1914. The truce took place in a battle field in France between British and German soldiers. This was part of our big write and we wrote a diary entry as Jim, one of the soldiers.

This week we have constructed our buzz wire games, the trickiest part was getting the circuit correct!

Karlson 4S

Thankyou Thank You for your support for Movember . We raised a fantastic £274.71.
