Learning Ambassador Review of the Week

4S Kingswood trip,
First, when we got to Kingswood, we were shown around and told where to (and where not to) go. Next we went in to our first activity which was fencing. It was hard but we enjoyed it. Then we were told we would be sleeping and there were four in a room. Then we had dinner. It was great. We had a few different options to choose from.
After dinner, we had a meeting with the leader Josh to talk about what we wanted to get out of Kingswood. After that we had mini Olympics, where we had sprinting races and a race where we had to act like we'd won the lottery on the way up but on the way back, act like we'd found out the ticket was fake. Finally, we showered and went to bed excited for the next 2 days.
Over the next 2 days, we had activities like Jacobs ladder, obstacle challenge, kick rounders, archery, group leader games, bottle rockets, a camp fire and the best one of all laser tag.
We also had some lovely food for breakfast, lunch and dinner and we got to go to the souvenir shop. On Friday we came home happy because we had had fun and sad because we had to leave.
