On Friday the 5th May we will be having a Coronation Day in school to celebrate the coronation of Charles III. Children are welcome to come to school in red, white and blue clothing.

Please can we ask that when parking near school that you are mindful of resident's private driveways. We have had complaints of these being blocked especially the track opposite the school by the first layby. As we have no jurisdiction over these areas we have advised the resident to contact the police if this continues.
