Children coming late into school

We are having an increasing amount of children coming late into school in the morning. Whilst we fully appreciate there may be times when this is unavoidable, regular lateness may be dealt with via an attendance panel.

School Trips

Throughout the year your child's class may organise special events/school trips. A letter will come home with the date of the trip and any cost that may be required. Although the letter will ask for a voluntary contribution if we do not receive enough money to cover the cost, the trip may not be able to go ahead. Please can we ask that all monies are paid by the deadline given and that the letter is kept for you to refer to.
