Staff changes from September

We say goodbye to Mrs Simmons who has taught at Scarning for the last 8 years. We will greatly miss her valued contribution to the school and wish her all the best in her retirement. We also say goodbye to Mrs Hollingworth who has been a Teaching Assistant and HLTA at school for an amazing 24 years! We also wish her well on her retirement but are pleased that we will still see her around school in her role as a School Governor.

We are pleased to announce that Mr Bray will be re-joining us having newly qualified as a teacher. He will be joining the year 5 team.
