What's been happening in school...

Children (and staff) then coloured in their own masks and talked about when they might need to wear them.

Year 1 & 2 enjoyed a visit from author Louise Gooding. She read them her story 'Minna's Masks' and discussed different feelings.

Reception had a fantastic turn out to their phonics workshop! After watching a phonics lesson, parents/grandparents shared some phonics activities the children. The children loved sharing their learning with their families.
