Big Norfolk Holiday Fun

News Update

Get ready, Big Norfolk Holiday Fun is back this winter!

Booking opens from Sunday 22nd November at 12pm, so make sure you're ready to secure your child's place.

From this Sunday, you can book your child's place on exciting activities taking place throughout the winter school holidays*. Activities will run on 21, 22, 29 and 30 December.

Sessions are packed with fun, including sports, games, creative activities, riding, high ropes, and trips, plus a nutritious meal. Sessions are free for children who receive Targeted Free School Meals. The programme is open to children aged 5-16, or 4 years old if they are already attending school.

*excludes weekends and bank holidays.

Can my children join for free?

Frequently asked questions

If you're unsure whether your child is eligible for Targeted Free School Meals, please use the link below for more information.
Registration is required before booking any activities, so we recommend signing up now if you haven't already.
Please note: Targeted Free School Meals are different from Expanded Free School Meals and Universal Free School Meals.

Inclusion Christmas Crafts and Coffee Morning

December 18th 9 - 10am

Alongside our Christmas craft and coffee morning we would like to hold a book sale and we are looking for book donations for this event.

If you have any old book or books that your child has outgrown and would like to donate, these would be gratefully received.

Our aim is to make these books affordable to everyone.

— Mrs Simpson and Mrs King —

Book donations to be dropped off in the plastic box outside the office.
