Christmas Lunches 2026

This year we have changed our christmas lunch ordering to be online!

You will receive an email on Monday 9th November with a link attached that will take you to the Christmas Lunch order form.

You will receive an individual link for each child - complete the form attached to each of these separately. Please make sure that you put your child's name on the correct form corresponding to their class - these are outlined in the email and in the form.

Payment for children in Year 3-6 who are not entitled to Free School Meals should be made through School Money, this payment will be available under the name 'Christmas Lunch' the day after you submit your form.

All forms and payments need to be completed by Friday 20th November, we cannot accept any responses after this date.

Friday 13th November (3pm-4pm) and Saturday 14th November (9.45-11.15) will see the school open for parents and children to visit our pop-up Scarning Art Gallery.
We are taking part in the National Gallery's 'Take One Picture' project, and each year group will be working on art work inspired by the artist Canaletto's, 'A Regatta on the Grand Canal.' This amazing painting is inspired by 18th century Venice during carnival season.
We would love for you to attend and to see a selection of our pieces.
